

MANAGEMENT SCIENCE MAJOR (EN 26)

Effective FA19 all majors in the Department of Economics are no longer capped. To become one of our majors, students simply need to select the major using the Major/Minor Tool on TritonLink. All major requirements must be taken for letter grade and passed with a C- or better, unless otherwise noted. Students must have a minimum 2.0 major GPA, in order to graduate.

LOWER DIVISION CORE

Calculus & Linear Algebra: Math 20A _____ Math 20B _____ Math 20C _____ Math 18 (formerly 20F) _____

Micro/Macro: Econ 1 _____ Econ 3 _____

Financial Accounting: Econ 4 or MGT 4 _____

UPPER DIVISION CORE

Econometrics: Econ 120A _____ Econ 120B _____ Econ 120C _____

Microeconomics: Econ 100A _____ Econ 100B _____ Econ 100C _____

Decisions Under Uncertainty: Econ 171 _____

Operations Research: Econ 172A _____ (FA & WI only) Econ 172B _____ (WI & SP only)

Finance: Econ 173A _____ (FA & WI only) Econ 173B _____ (WI & SP only)

MANAGEMENT SCIENCE ADVANCED ELECTIVES

Two courses from the following: Econ 103, 105, 109, 113, 121, 122, 125, 137, 150, 151, 152, 174, 176, 178 and Math 194 (please refer to course description for prerequisite information).

1) _____

2) _____

ECONOMICS STANDARD ELECTIVES

Two upper division Economics courses from Econ 100-199 (Not to include 191A/B if you are attempting Honors with Highest Distinction)

3) _____

4) _____

REQUIREMENTS FOR HONORS WITH DISTINCTION

- Upper Division Major GPA of 3.5 or higher

REQUIREMENTS HONORS WITH HIGHEST DISTINCTION

- Two honors sections from the following: Econ 100AH, 100BH, 100CH, 120AH, 120BH, 120CH. Honors sections may be taken concurrently, or after successful completion of the designated core course, with A- or better or consent of instructor.
- Senior Essay Seminar courses Econ 191A & Econ 191B (admission by application)
- Upper Division Major GPA of 3.5 or higher and GPA of 3.5 or higher in two completed honors sections and Econ 191A & Econ 191B.

Updated WI21